INTRODUCTION

The creation of the Organization for the Development and Booming of Populations is an initiative from men and women conscient of the hard life conditions of the populations in Mali. They joined to an Organization in response to the preoccupation of malian authorities in their promotion of a participative development within the context of decentralization and struggle against poverty.

The aim of the A.D.E.P., whose management is fully disinterested, is to help and support all populations in Mali. Especially, it supports the development of the village communities in the projects concerning the supply in drinking water and its uses, its purification, environmental protection, acces to health and to education, promotion of village and urban hydraulics,... in accordance with the needs and the respect of fondamentale rights of these communities, with the objective of a reinforcement of the international solidarity and of the decentralized cooperation.

Both in Mali and in France, the actions of the ADEP are organized around the main axes of promotion of socio-economical and cultural developments, which are the followings:
